

CONSENT

By signing this consent form the parent/other legal representative of the Child or an authorised full-aged (adult) person accompanying the Child and acting on behalf of the parents/other legal representatives of the Child represents that they:

1. Have read and familiarised themselves with the Rules of the CurioCity Edutainment Centre for Children (hereinafter - Edutainment Centre) (hereinafter - Rules), understand the Rules, and agree to comply with them; have familiarised the accompanied minor indicated in this Consent (hereinafter - Child) with the Rules and allows the Child to visit the Edutainment Centre on their own or together with the Child's parents/ other legal representatives of the Child or an authorised full-aged person accompanying the Child and authorised by parents (legal representatives) of the Child (hereinafter - the person responsible for the Child).
2. Undertake to duly comply with the Rules and to ensure that the Child will comply with them, and also take full responsibility for the Child and for any risk related with the compliance with the Rules and any damage that may arise; are aware that the Rules are publicly available at the Edutainment Centre and on the website of the Edutainment Centre at www.curiocty.lt, and have also been provided together with this Consent as an inseparable part of the Consent.
3. Agree that should the Child fail to comply with the Rules, the person responsible for the Child who has allowed the Child to visit the Edutainment Centre shall take full responsibility for it and understands that UAB Educatus, reg. No. 304496988, (hereinafter - Operator) shall not be liable for any damage arising from failure to comply or failure to comply properly with the Rules, reckless and/or dangerous behaviour of the Child or for compensation of any such damage.
4. Agree that should the person responsible for the Child and/or the Child fail to comply with the Rules, the Edutainment Centre has the right to request that the person responsible for the Child and the Child would immediately leave the premises of the Edutainment Centre or to contact the person responsible for the Child and to request that the person responsible for the Child would immediately collect the Child from the Edutainment Centre. In the cases specified in this paragraph, the money paid for visiting the Edutainment Centre on that day shall not be refunded to the Visitors of the Centre.
5. Have duly considered the services provided by the Edutainment Centre, its equipment, environment, their and the Child's abilities and capabilities to visit the Edutainment Centre and understand that the Edutainment Centre offers activities, forms of entertainment, and inventory for children in the age range of 1 to 13 years, and ensure that the Child will use activities, forms of entertainment, and inventory of the Edutainment Centre properly and according to the age of the Child.
6. Agree in good faith and without any compulsion - assuming the risk and liability associated with the damage caused by their Child that may be incurred by the Child, and/or the Edutainment Centre, and the third parties - to allow the Child indicated below to be admitted to the Edutainment Centre on their own without supervision of the person responsible for the Child and understands that the Edutainment Centre provides only the services of organising children's leisure, but not the services of child care or education and that the Operator is not responsible for the supervision of the Child and any damage arising thereof. If the person responsible for the Child who signs this Consent visits the Edutainment Centre together with the Child, they shall take all responsibility thereof, and agree to monitor the Child regularly, continuously, at their own risk and liability, and to take care and supervise the Child, their behaviour and health.
7. Confirm that the Child who is allowed to visit the Edutainment Centre by the person responsible for the Child does not have any health or other issues which may have any negative effect on the Child and/or the third parties in the Edutainment Centre.

INFORMATION ABOUT PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA OF A PRIVATE INDIVIDUAL

1. The data controller (We/Us): UAB Educatus, company reg. No 304496988, registered address Islandijos pl. 32, Kaunas, mob. tel.: 8 688 33202, email: info@educatus.lt.
2. Contact details of the Data Protection Officer: duomenuapsauga@balticred.com, tel. 8 239 37 017.
3. The information on your first name, surname, telephone number and the Child's first name, surname, and age is collected and processed for the purpose of concluding and executing the contract (Consent) in order to visit the Edutainment Centre. In order to visit the Edutainment Centre, you must fill out the Consent form and provide your own and your Child's personal data. Your first name and surname will be processed on the basis of Article 6(1)(b) of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) of the European Union (Regulation No 2016/679), where processing of personal data is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party or in order to take steps at the request of the data subject prior to entering into a contract. We process information on your telephone number in order to be able to contact you when your Child is at the Edutainment Centre, or if after visiting the Edutainment Centre, you leave any personal items behind, etc. We process information on your Child's first name and surname in order to identify the Child who is at the Edutainment Centre with you or alone. We process information on your Child's age in order to determine whether and under what conditions the Child has the right to visit the Edutainment Centre based on the Rules of the CurioCity Edutainment Centre. We collect and process information on your telephone number, the Child's first name, surname, and age on the basis of Article 6(1)(f) of the GDPR, for the purpose of the legitimate interest of duly executing the contract (Consent). If you do not specify your first name, surname, telephone number, the Child's first name, surname, and age, we shall have the right not to provide services to you.
4. When in doubt about the age of the Visitor, the employee of the Center shall have the right to request the Visitor to provide their identity document (birth certificate, passport, identity card, student certificate, etc.).
5. In order to use the services of the Edutainment Centre you do not have to provide an email address, but if you provide an email address, we will use this information on the basis of your and our legitimate interests (Article 6(1)(f) of the GDPR) to identify you, when you submit a request to us or in order to contact you if you leave any items behind, etc. If you provide information about the city and the country, we will use this information for statistical purposes in order to improve our services. The legal basis for the processing of such data under Article 6(1)(f) of the GDPR is our legitimate interest to provide services that meet your expectations.
6. If you wish and agree that another full-aged (adult) person authorised by the parents/ legal representatives of the Child would collect the Child from the Edutainment Centre, you must indicate the first name, surname and telephone number of such a person. By submitting personal data of another person, you confirm that you have the consent of that person to provide their personal data to us and to process their personal data. We process personal data of the person whose personal data you have provided to us in order to identify the person who will collect the Child from the Edutainment Centre on the basis of Article 6(1)(f) of the GDPR, where our legitimate interest is to properly execute the contract (Consent) and to identify the person who will collect the Child from the Edutainment Centre. If you do not specify the first name, surname, and telephone number of the person who will collect the Child from the Edutainment Centre in your Consent, we shall have the right to refuse the person to collect the Child.
7. Every Visitor of the Edutainment Centre will receive a magnetic wristband with a unique code prior to entering the Centre. The wristband will be issued to a specific Child, depending on the type of the Consent form ("single day" or "annual" Consent), "annual" - by assigning a card with the first name and surname of the Child to the wristband in the system or "single day" - by issuing a wristband with a unique code without assigning the first name and surname of the Child in the system. The Child will enter the Edutainment Centre with the wristband, which for the purpose of payment and for identification of the children staying at the Centre without their parents will record the exact time spent by the Child in the Edutainment Centre. The wristband will be issued to the person responsible for the Child for the purpose of entering the Centre and recording the entry time; the exit time is also displayed, but is not restricted. In order to track and, if necessary, to manage the traffic of Visitors in the Centre, due to the unique codes of the wristbands, the cashier desk can see how busy the Centre is. The time of the Child's visit in the Edutainment Centre and information about the presence of the person responsible for the Child in the Centre are processed on the basis of a legitimate interest (Article 6(1)(f) GDPR).
8. The Edutainment Centre shall have the right to take photographs, make films and make various video and audio recordings on a regular basis on the premises of the Edutainment Centre during public events without any separate notification of the Visitors and use any such photographs, films, and video and audio recordings for marketing purposes of the Edutainment Centre. Our events are public and open to anyone who wants to participate in them. To avoid any possibility of being photographed or filmed, you may not participate in public events, contests or contact us to remove your image from our communication material...
9. The data subject has the following rights: the right to access their personal data that is being processed, the right to request us to rectify their inaccurate personal data, the right to personal data portability (this right applies when personal data is processed automatically on the basis of your consent or after signing a contract), the right to request that the personal data of the natural person is erased (where there is a legal basis provided for in the legal acts), the right to contact us with a request to restrict the processing of the data (where there is a legal basis provided for in the legal acts), the right to object to processing (where there is a legal basis provided for in the legal acts and the data is processed on the basis of a legitimate interest), the right to withdraw the consent to the processing of personal data at any time, if the personal data is processed on the basis of consent (without prejudice to the lawfulness of processing based on consent prior to the withdrawal of consent). In order to exercise their rights specified in this paragraph, the data subject may contact the Edutainment Centre at the address Islandijos pl. 32, Kaunas, or by email info@educatus.lt submitting a request signed by a qualified electronic signature or contact the Data Protection Officer using the contact details indicated above.
10. We may provide the personal data processed by Us to law enforcement, judicial or pre-trial investigation authorities for any investigation they may be carrying out or to an insurance company or in any other cases provided for by law without the separate consent of the private individual.
11. We also use services provided by third parties (e.g. servers of third parties, accounting services, and document storage services) for the proper provision of which access to your personal data may be required. In such cases, we ensure that data processors comply with confidentiality and personal data protection requirements.
12. We store personal data provided for the purpose of conclusion and execution of the contract (Consent) for a period of 3 (three) years from the date of expiry of the Consent, unless personal data must be stored for a longer period on another basis for the processing of personal data. The term is established in accordance with Article 1.125(9) of the Civil Code of the Republic of Lithuania. We process personal data for marketing purposes in accordance with Paragraph 6 for 3 (three) years from the date on which a public event takes place.
13. If you think that processing of your personal data by Us does not comply with the applicable law, you may contact the State Data Protection Inspectorate (www.ada.lt).
14. The Privacy Policy of the CurioCity Edutainment Centre is available at www.curiocty.lt/privatumo-politika.

Visitor	Each person present at the Edutainment Centre who is visiting the Edutainment Centre in accordance with the procedure specified by the Operator;
Operator	UAB Educatus, address Islandijos pl. 32, Kaunas, Reg. No. 304496988, VAT reg. No. LT100010845614;
Services	Services of organising activities and leisure for children aged 1-13 and other related services provided at the Edutainment Centre;
Rules	These rules of the Edutainment Centre with all their annexes and subsequent amendments and supplements;
Child	A minor
A person responsible for the Child	One or both Child's parents/other legal representative(s) of the child or a full-aged person(s) authorised by the Child's parents or other legal Child's representatives (relative, friend, teacher, nursery carer, etc.)

Unless the context requires otherwise, the words used in the Rules in the singular include the plural and vice versa.

2. These Rules lay down the main requirements for internal procedures of the Edutainment Centre, the procedure for Visitor services and visiting the Edutainment Centre, and other requirements related to the activities of the Edutainment Centre in order to ensure coherent, safe and coordinated operation of the Edutainment Centre, good mood of each Visitor, and satisfaction with the Services provided by the Edutainment Centre.
3. If necessary, the Operator shall have the right to adopt individual instructions and/or regulations for Visitors to ensure proper internal procedures of the Edutainment Centre, including, but not limited to the safety procedures in emergencies.
4. Requirements of these Rules apply to all Visitors. Each Visitor of the Edutainment Centre agrees to comply with the requirements of these Rules.
5. The Operator shall have the right to amend or supplement these Rules, prices of Services, working time or, where necessary, to close the Edutainment Centre without prior notice.

II. WORKING TIME, PRICE OF SERVICES, AND PROCEDURE FOR VISITING THE EDUTAINMENT CENTRE

- The Operator shall set the working time of the Edutainment Centre, make a list of its activities and Services, and set their prices. The working time of the Edutainment Centre and the list of its Services and prices are provided at the registration desk of the Edutainment Centre and on the website www.curiosity.lt.
 - Activities and Services of the Edutainment Centre may be temporarily unavailable due to technical obstacles, when the maximum number of Visitors is reached and/or in other cases without prior notice.
 - The Services of the Edutainment Centre are intended for Children aged 1-13. Persons over 14 years of age shall not be admitted on their own without Children to the Edutainment Centre.
Restrictions may apply to the age and physical condition of Visitors for certain activities and types of entertainment at the Edutainment Centre. They are specified at the Edutainment Centre where any such activities and types of entertainment take place. Visitors must comply with these restrictions.
 - Visitors must also use the inventory provided during the activities and entertainment at the Edutainment Centre according to its intended purpose.
 - Visitors can visit the Edutainment Centre after registration and making payment for the Services.
 - Children under the age of one year may visit the Edutainment Centre free of charge and must be accompanied by the person responsible for the Child, who has paid the fee set by the Edutainment Centre.
 - Children aged 1-3 may visit the Edutainment Centre only accompanied by the person responsible for the Child.
 - Children aged 4-5 may visit the Edutainment Centre on their own or accompanied by the person responsible for the Child, provided the person responsible for the Child has signed their consent that the Child will visit the Edutainment Centre on their own, without the supervision of the person responsible for the Child. Children may visit the Edutainment Centre without the supervision of the person responsible for the Child and must wear special distinctive signs issued by the centre (bright vest, wristband, etc.).
 - Children over 6 years of age may visit the Edutainment Centre on their own, provided the person responsible for the Child has signed their consent that the Child will visit the Edutainment Centre on their own, without the supervision of the person responsible for the Child.
 - Children with special needs, e.g. disabled Children or Children with other health issues may visit the Edutainment Centre only accompanied by a full-aged person (a person responsible for the Child).
 - During registration to the Edutainment Centre, the information specified in this Consent must be provided to the Employee of the Centre.
 - During registration, the person responsible for the Child shall sign their consent and shall confirm that they have read these Rules and agree to comply with them and that they have familiarised the Child and other Visitors who have come together with the Rules and agree to ensure that the Child and other Visitors who have come together will comply with the Rules (hereinafter – Consent).
 - During registration, the Consent must be signed only by one full-aged person (a person responsible for the Child) who accompanies the Child/Children. All Visitors who are admitted to the Edutainment Centre must confirm that they have read these Rules and agree to comply with them unconditionally. If a Visitor is a minor, their parents/other legal representatives/full-aged persons accompanying the Child and authorised by parents (legal representatives) of the Child must familiarise the Child with these Rules and ensure that the minors will comply with them.
 - During a visit to the Edutainment Centre, Children must wear the wristbands or smart watches or other distinctive admission signs issued by the Operator at all times and must not remove them themselves, but must protect them and treat them with care and return them to the Employees of the Centre at deregistration from the Edutainment Centre. A charge is applied for the lost admission sign.
 - The person responsible for the Child, prior to leaving the Child at the Edutainment Centre, must ensure that the Child's health condition allows him to be on their own at the Edutainment Centre and play with other Children. The person responsible for the child leaving the Child at the Edutainment Centre must be cautious and diligent, and carefully evaluate the Child's psychological and physical condition.
 - For the sake of health and safety of Visitors, Children and other persons ill with infectious, viral or other communicable diseases, with open wounds or other health disorders which pose danger to their own health and the health or life of other persons, are prohibited from visiting the Edutainment Centre. In case of any obvious doubt about the Child's or another person's health, the Employees of the Centre shall have the right to deny their access to the Edutainment Centre.
 - The time spent by a Visitor at the Edutainment Centre is recorded from the moment the Visitor passes the entrance gates to the Edutainment Centre after making payment for the Services.
 - Visitors/persons responsible for the Child must monitor their time spent at the Edutainment Centre. Visitors must pay the price set by the Operator for the additional time spent at the Edutainment Centre (for which they have not paid before entering the Edutainment Centre) according to the rates set by the Operator. This additional payment must be made at the cash desk of the registration of the Edutainment Centre before leaving (deregistration from) the Edutainment Centre.
 - There is a 15-minute window for deregistration; time in excess of this 15-minute window is charged as one hour.
 - The Child is registered to and deregistered from the Edutainment Centre only in the presence of the person responsible for the Child or, if a Child is visiting the Edutainment Centre on their own, only if the person responsible for the Child has come to collect the Child. Children are not deregistered from the Edutainment Centre on their own.
 - No refunds are available if a Visitor deregisters from the Edutainment Centre earlier, i.e. before the expiry of the time for which they have paid, or if the Visitor is expelled from the Edutainment Centre due to failure to comply with these Rules.
 - Visitors must deregister at least 10 minutes prior to the closing time of the Edutainment Centre.
- ## III. RULES FOR ORDER, CLEANLINESS AND GENERAL BEHAVIOUR
- A video surveillance system is available at the Edutainment Centre for security purposes (for more information please see <http://www.curiosity.lt/privatumopolitika>)
 - A Visitor to the Edutainment Centre using its Services must strictly comply with the requirements and recommendations laid down in these Rules and comply with instructions of the Employees of the Centre concerning safety requirements at the Edutainment Centre and compliance with these Rules; the person responsible for the Child is responsible for the supervision of the Child and for compliance with these Rules of the Edutainment Centre and must assume all risks and liability arising thereof.
 - Clothing, footwear, backpacks, hurdle bags, large and/or shopping bags, and prams or push chairs must be left in the cloakroom of the Edutainment Centre. Lockers provided for Visitors in the cloakroom are locked by the Visitors themselves, therefore the Operator recommends to make sure your locker is locked. If any personal items are lost, the Visitor must contact the Employee of the Centre immediately. The Operator is not responsible for any lost items.
 - Children must wear proper indoor footwear, which must be clean and safe and must not be slippery or must wear clean socks. Adult Visitors must wear disposable footwear slipped over their shoes or wear clean indoor footwear (or must wear socks if they wish to be without shoes). It is recommended for the Children to wear comfortable clothing suitable for playing games, without any cords, scarves or necklaces, which may become entangled in the equipment.
 - If there is any suspicion of the content of Visitors' bags, the Employees of the Centre shall have the right to inspect the content of the bags brought to the Edutainment Centre.
 - For the sake of Visitors' own health and hygiene requirements, Visitors to the Edutainment Centre must be clean and tidy.
 - The Employees of the Centre shall have the right to decline admission to the Edutainment Centre if:
 - A person does not accept or does not understand the Rules;
 - A person's behaviour could disturb the procedures of the Edutainment Centre or pose risk to health and safety of Visitors, hygiene of the Edutainment Centre or property of the Edutainment Centre and/or would be contrary to the norms of behaviour acceptable in the society;
 - If there is any suspicion that a person is under the influence of alcohol, narcotic, psychotropic or other substances.
 - Visitors must put all inventory and clothing for games, and other items back to where they belong.
 - If only one Visitor can use some inventory or equipment for the game at one single time, after it has been used, other Visitors must be allowed to use it. If the first Visitor wishes to use the inventory or equipment again, they shall wait for their turn.
 - The Employee of the Edutainment Centre must be contacted, if a Visitor needs help, has any problem or question, if any inventory or equipment does not operate, or if anyone gets hurt.
 - The following is prohibited at the Edutainment Centre:
 - To bring food and/or beverages;
 - To bring animals;
 - To smoke, bring and consume alcoholic beverages, narcotic, psychotropic or other prohibited substances;
 - To bring weapons, sharp, explosive, radioactive, breakable and/or other hazardous items and substances, which may cause injury to the person himself or other persons, may cause infection, spread pungent odour, and damage the property/valuables/inventory of the Edutainment Centre;
 - To damage, throw, break or otherwise vandalise the property/valuables/inventory of the Edutainment Centre;
 - To shout, run, push, climb and jump in other than the designated places;
 - To fight, misbehave, bully, use foul language, insult and otherwise interfere with other playing Children;
 - To litter, soil or otherwise disturb activities of the Edutainment Centre and interfere with other Visitors, to perform other unlawful actions or actions contrary to good morals and public order;
 - To take any property/valuables/inventory of the Edutainment Centre. In the case of any theft, the Employees of the Centre have the right to notify the police;
 - To sell, offer to buy or advertise to other Visitors any goods, items and/or services.
 - Visitors can eat and drink only in the café area of the Edutainment Centre, rooms for birthdays/events, and in the cookery class (and only the food and drinks purchased at the café of the Edutainment Centre).
 - It is allowed to take photographs, make films, and make video and audio recording at the Edutainment Centre for personal use of Visitors; it is prohibited to do this for commercial purposes and it is prohibited to record, take photographs and film other Visitors and the Employees of the Centre.
- ## IV. EMERGENCY PROCEDURES
- All premises of the Edutainment Centre are equipped with the fire alarm system, automatic fire extinguishing system, perimeter security alarm system and an audio system which transmits audio notifications, i.e. messages informing Visitors and/or other third parties what to do if they are at the Edutainment Centre or outside the area of the Centre in the event of an accident or another emergency.

2. In the event of an emergency at the Edutainment Centre, e.g. in the event of a fire or explosion, natural disaster or catastrophe, sabotage or an act of terror, Visitors must carry out instructions given by the Employees of the Centre, the police, fire rescue and other services.
3. If a Visitor notices the source of fire or smoke, they must notify the Employees of the Centre immediately about it.
4. If any unattended items, explosives, chemical or radioactive materials are detected or reported, the Employees of the Centre must be notified about it immediately. Visitors must refrain from taking any localisation and decontamination actions themselves.
5. If there is any suspicion of abuse against any Child of the Edutainment Centre, the Operator shall have the right to report it to law enforcement authorities.
6. The Operator shall have the right to close the Edutainment Centre (or part thereof) with immediate effect and without any prior notice, if there is any security threat to the Edutainment Centre or its Visitors.
7. By signing this Consent the parent/other legal representative of the child or an authorised full-aged (adult) person accompanying the child and acting on behalf of the parents/other legal representatives of the child agrees that, in the event of an accident or other emergency, sabotage or a terrorist attack at the Edutainment Centre or outside its area where the evacuation of visitors from the Edutainment Centre is necessary, the Operator would take the child from the Edutainment Centre to a safe Meeting Point in the zone outside the Mega Leisure and Entertainment Centre marked in red in the plan below or another place selected by the Employee of the Centre without the separate consent of the representative of the child in order to protect the health and life of the visitors of the Edutainment Centre, where this is possible. The representative of the child has been informed and is aware that following the evacuation of the child in the event of an emergency or where there is danger to the child's health or life, the Operator will try to protect the child and take decisions which, in the Operator's opinion, are the best in the situation to protect the child's health and vital interests.

V. FINAL PROVISIONS

1. The Operator is not liable for the Visitors' personal items or for their loss and/or damage. Visitors are responsible for the security of their own personal items.
2. Any items lost at the Edutainment Centre and subsequently found and handed over to the Employees of the Centre shall be stored in the Edutainment Centre at the Operator's discretion for no longer than 30 days or shall handed over to the police in the manner prescribed by legal acts of the Republic of Lithuania. After the 30-day term, the Operator shall have the right to utilize the items.
3. The Operator shall not be liable for any loss, harm, injury or threat incurred by a Visitor and damage to their property, health or life, if the Visitor has failed to comply with these Rules or has breached the Rules.

4. If a Visitor causes damage to the Edutainment Centre and its inventory or damage to the property and/or health of other Visitors or other third parties, they shall be liable as prescribed by legal acts of the Republic of Lithuania. If damage is caused by a minor, their parents/legal representatives shall be liable for the damage.
5. Parents/legal representatives of minors or other full-aged persons accompanying the minors and authorised by parents (legal representatives) (relative, friend, teacher, nursery carer, etc.) of the minors are responsible for familiarising them with these Rules and compliance with these Rules.
6. The Operator shall not examine any Visitor's claims and shall not be liable for any property and/or moral damage incurred by the Visitor at the Edutainment Centre, if the Visitor has failed to comply with the requirements and/or recommendations in these Rules.
